

Daryl Coyne
Manager, Loan Programs

Ms. Coyne is the Manager, Loan Programs for the Northwest Pennsylvania Regional Planning and Development Commission, based in Oil City, Pennsylvania. This position requires oversight of the business financing program.

Since joining the Northwest Commission in 1992, Ms. Coyne has held many positions within the business financing program including the Associate Director, Loan Programs and Finance Specialist. In these capacities she packages loans, assists clients, and manages the business financing team.

Ms. Coyne has been a life-long resident of the region, and lives in Oil City (Venango County). She enjoys spending time with her new granddaughter, Ella Rose, and visiting her son and daughter in-law who live in Twinsburg, Ohio.

Ms. Coyne appreciates living and working in rural northwest Pennsylvania. She believes it brings a quality of life that can not be found in metropolitan areas. She is fortunate to have colleagues who share this appreciation as well as value family.

