

Dorte Heffernan
Manager, International Trade

Mrs. Heffernan is the Manager, International Trade for the Northwest Pennsylvania Regional Planning and Development Commission, based in Oil City, Pennsylvania. This position demands that she lead international marketing staff as they seek new opportunities to advance economic growth in the region.

Mrs. Heffernan earned her NASBITE Certification as a Global Business Professional (CGBP), and is currently only one of two international professionals in Pennsylvania to earn this prestigious national certification.

Residing in Oil City, Venango County, with her husband of sixteen years and their son Tristan, Dorte Heffernan believes the northwest Pennsylvania region is the perfect place to raise children with its safe and nurturing environment.
