

Amanda Slider

Amanda Slider is a Loan Specialist for the Northwest Commission. In this role, she packages loans, analyzes financial statements to determine credit worthiness, and prepares credit write-ups and collateral recommendations to determine sufficient debt coverage. Amanda also explains the requirements of the loan programs to potential loan candidates. She visits potential project sites and entrepreneurs to provide client support throughout the packaging process.

Ms. Slider holds a Master's degree in Business Administration from Clarion University. She also holds a B.A. degree in Political Science and Religious Studies from Albright College located in Reading, PA. Recently, Amanda received certification as a Economic Development Finance Professional (EDFP) from the National Development Council (NDC). Prior to joining the Commission, Amanda spent four years as a Customer Service Representative for First United National Bank. In this capacity, she interviewed loan applicants, analyzed prospective loan requests, and prepared final loan documents.

Amanda currently resides in Venango County with her husband Brian. She enjoys living in the area because of the quality of life and the small town feeling offered by the region.
