

Sue Smith
Manager, Regional Planning

As a member of the Northwest Commission staff, Ms. Smith fills the position of the Manager of Regional Planning.

Ms. Smith responsibilities cover two programs; Transportation and the Greenways Block Grant Program as a part of the Community Development and Planning focus. Sue manages the region's infrastructure planning and development and coordinates transportation planning and programming between the counties of Clarion, Crawford, Forest, Venango, and Warren Counties and the Department of Transportation through the development of the Transportation Improvement Program (TIP). She also serves as coordinator for the Greenways Block Grant Program which is used to implement the greenways plans throughout the region.

Ms. Smith holds a degree in Business Administration and Accounting from Clarion University, Venango Campus. As a former county commissioner she brings a broad range of experience and insight to planning and economic development.

Sue is a lifelong resident of Venango County, enjoys traveling and has a son, Dave and daughter, Erica and three wonderful grandchildren: Madison, Kaiden and Isabella.

